JAPANESE TREATY NOW BEING CONSIDERED

WOULD EXEMPT JAPS FROM AMERICAN LAWS DISCRIMINATORY TO ASIATICS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—A treaty under which Japanese would be exempted from American laws discriminatory to Asiatics, is being considered at the State Department, it was reported here today. Such a pact would be one way of meeting the Japanese protest against the new California law prohibiting ownership of land by Japanese and other Asiatics.

President Wilson and Secretary of State Colby are understood not yet to have decided on the plan.

As now being considered, the treaty would guarantee to Japanese subjects in this country the same land rights given to most foreigners here, it is said. The treaty, if passed, would exempt Japanese from the present California law. Should the treaty be agreed upon, the ratification of the Senate would be necessary. It probably would be opposed there.

HARDING NEARING DESTINATION IN TEXAS

SPECIAL TRAIN TO ARRIVE IN BROWNSVILLE AT 11:30 A. M.; 20-MILE RIDE AT POINT ISABEL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ON BOARD HARDING SPECIAL EN ROUTE TO POINT ISABEL, TEXAS, Nov. 8.—After forty-eight hours' continuous travel, President-elect Harding was nearing the southernmost tip of Texas today where he will spend ten days fishing and golfing. The special train was to arrive at Brownsville at 11:30 a. m. There the party will take automobiles for the twenty-mile ride to Point Isabel. Politics, office seekers and all weighty matters will be taboo.

COMMUNISTS HOLD BIG DEMONSTRATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BERLIN, Nov. 8.—Singing "Red" battle hymns and preaching inflammatory doctrines, three thousand communists held a demonstration here today. Despite the firey speeches and the threatening songs, the demonstration was peaceable.

LITERARY DEPT. HOLDS MEETING

THOUGH IT WAS ON ELECTION DAY ATTENDANCE WAS VERY GOOD

A HELPFUL PROGRAM

PAPER ON GREECE, BOOK REVIEW AND "CURRENT EVENTS" FEATURES

The Literary Section of the Tuesday Afternoon club held its second regular meeting at the home of the curator, Mrs. A. M. Williams, 208 South Orange street, Tuesday, November 2d, at 2:30 p. m. While this fell upon election day, more than twenty were in attendance.

Mrs. Edgar Leavitt gave an interesting paper on the geography of Greece, being able to explain her points by use of a large map of the country. Mrs. Ayars' review of "The Dead Command," by Ibanez, was the principal work of the afternoon, and so ably and extensively was it given that each listener felt an added interest and enthusiasm over this favorite author.

Mrs. Baker's items on Current Events finished a pleasant afternoon of literary work, after which time was spent in making and discussing plans for the apron booth for the bazaar to be given by the Tuesday Afternoon club early in December.

Pleasant Party

People in and about Glendale who are interested in tennis have a delightful fashion of holding occasional sessions purely social in nature.

They have no formal club organization; these parties are merely the result of their congenial acquaintanceship on the tennis court.

Mrs. Albert Bailey, of Eagle Rock, was the hostess on Saturday evening to a group of twenty-five or thirty of these tennis enthusiasts.

Many Glendale people, among them Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McCourt, of 336 North Central avenue, were some of those who enjoyed the pleasures of the occasion.

Dancing was the pastime of the evening, and the Hallowe'en motif was used in the refreshments.

FINE NEW HOME

R. S. TODD IS BUILDING HANDSOME BUNGALOW ON NORTH MARYLAND

R. S. Todd is building a very convenient and handsome bungalow at 416 North Maryland avenue. This is one of the new bungalows in Glendale in which the material is not being thrown together to complete its construction in a hurry, but all details are being carefully carried out under the direction of Mr. Todd. When it is finished it will be one of the most desirable homes on Maryland avenue. Connections have been made for both gas and electric heating. While this building is in process of construction, Mr. Todd and family are living in their garage, which, by the way, is more commodious and better finished than some dwelling houses.

Rainfall .83

The rainfall since Saturday noon, according to H. E. Bartlett's gauge, was .83, making the total for the season 1.68 inches, as compared with 3.23 at this date last year. Mr. Preston's gauge, just four blocks east of Mr. Bartlett's, shows a total of 1.80, as compared with 3.43 last year at this time.

Birthday Party

Miss Doris Barnard of 735 East Wilson avenue entertained her friends Friday evening at a birthday party in celebration of her twenty-first birthday. Her home was artistically decorated with orange and white flowers. Refreshments consisting of orange sherbet and a delicious birthday cake decorated with twenty-one orange-colored candles were served during the evening. The guests included Misses Emily Bell, Faith Tarling and Hazel Walters; Mesdames A. Bell, A. E. Stevens, E. S. Dockeray and Headlee; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Clemens Barnard and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stewart and family, Mr. and Mrs. Berryman, Wm. White and Robert Headlee. Melvin Clemens Barnard, who is a comedian by profession, furnished entertainment for the evening.

Elder J. W. Christian, B. M. Emerson, F. E. Painter, Prof. W. W. Ruble and W. C. Raley, all connected with the Seventh-day Adventist work in Glendale, arrived at home the latter part of the week from Indianapolis, Ind., where they had been attending the general convention.

WOMAN IS QUITE SERIOUSLY HURT

MRS. ALLAN DISKEY'S CLOTHES CATCH FIRE FROM GAS RANGE

GARMENTS CHARRED

NEIGHBOR WOMEN RUSH TO HER RESCUE; SUMMON AMBULANCE

Mrs. Allen Diskey, of 210 North Louise, was very seriously burned Saturday afternoon and she is still in a serious condition. She was passing by the gas cooking range, when her bungalow apron caught from the low oven jet flame and blazed up along her back. She ran screaming from the house and threw herself on the ground, rolling over and over in her agony. Mrs. E. W. Lyon and daughter Mildred on the one side and Miss Martha Ray on the other, heard her screams and ran to her aid. By the time they reached her most of her clothes were burned off and she was suffering intense agony. They took her into the house, tore off the burned shreds of clothing and wrapped her in blankets, then phoned for the Glendale Sanitarium ambulance, which quickly reached the scene and she was conveyed to the sanitarium, where it was found that her burns were very deep and dangerous, particularly on her back, over the kidneys. Her condition was somewhat improved this morning, but her condition is still serious.

Miss Ray, at her request, telegraphed her husband, who was working near Bakersfield, and he arrived yesterday.

JUST CANNOT STAY AWAY

W. P. M'INTOSH BUYS ACREAGE ON MOUNTAIN STREET FOR HOME

TO BUILD HERE SOON

FAMILY NOT SATISFIED AWAY FROM GLENDALE'S PURE AIR AND WATER

W. P. McIntosh has purchased the orange grove and beautiful building site on the north of Mountain street at the base of the Verdugo mountains, a little west of the head of Grand View avenue, and adjoining the 14-acre grove which he sold to the Duffs of England for a large sum a few months ago, with a view of locating elsewhere. Mr. McIntosh says he could not be contented away from Glendale's sunny, sightly foothills and the pure, soft, drinking water.

It will be particularly gratifying to the citizens of Glendale to learn through the columns of The News that the McIntoshs have purchased the nine acres in order to get one or two acres for their future home where the water, gas and other conditions are right. The real estate firm of Burton, Chandler & George immediately contracted to sell for them a portion of it to another Glendale resident and say they have many applicants for whatever other portion of the frontage he may wish to sell.

The paving of Mountain street is going to materially increase the desirability of this as a residence section. It will then be known as a part of the Foothill boulevard.

To Dress Kewpies

Mrs. Gies and Mrs. Heustis will be hostesses to a group of the young ladies of the Church of the Holy Family on next Friday evening, at the Gies home, Brand boulevard and Arden avenue.

The party will combine business and pleasure, devoting the evening to the dressing of one hundred kewpies for the coming Christmas sale the Catholic ladies are planning.

Card Party

The Y. L. I. of the Catholic church holds its installation of officers on Wednesday evening at the parish house.

After the business session, the young ladies will be hostess to their friends at a card party.

PUBLIC LIBRARY MAKES PROGRESS

FROM SMALL BEGINNING HAS GROWN TO LARGE PROPORTIONS

SLOGAN IS SERVICE

THURSDAY MRS. DANFORD'S THIRTIETH ANNIVERSARY AS LIBRARIAN

"Come and take choice of all my library and so beguile thy sorrow," might well be the motto of the librarian of Glendale's public library, Mrs. Alma J. Danford.

True, the library is yours and mine, as much as it is Mrs. Danford's; and you will agree that she has done much to make us feel that it is ours. Still, since she has been the mother of the library ever since we began to have a public library, thirteen years ago, how could she help feeling that it is, in a sense, her library?

In the beginning, Glendale's library was located in a room over on what was then called Third street (now Wilson avenue), near Glendale avenue. A table covered with burlap and a collection of books and magazines gathered by the Tuesday Afternoon club was the equipment. The ladies of this club mothered and fostered the project, taking their turns as librarians, until, late in the summer of 1907, they saw that the time was propitious for the appointment of a regular librarian.

Mrs. Danford had teaching experience and she had also had technical library training, so she was the logical choice as librarian.

Mrs. Danford received her training in the Long Beach library training school (there under the able direction of Miss Victoria Ellis, well-known in the library world), and also under Miss Mary L. McKinley, also a graduate of the Long Beach school.

ARMISTICE DAY

CELEBRATION TO BE FITTING—INTERESTING PROGRAM PLANNED

Armistice Day in Glendale will be assuredly a feature day, a Glendale day, if plans formulated by the committees in charge are entered into as heartily by the citizens of Glendale as they should be. And from expressions of opinion from various sources it seems safe to predict that Glendale residents will loyally do their part to make the day a great day for Glendale. Very few will leave their own city's celebration and attend those of other communities. The great majority will be loyal to their home city and its fine program for the day, thus assuring the success of the day. Under the efficient directorship of Clem Moore, the Armistice Day parade committees have made great progress and practically all arrangements have been completed for the biggest and most inspiring celebration ever held in Glendale.

Owing to the large number of organizations that have signified their intentions of participating in the parade and because of the fact that the line of march will of necessity be a short one, it has been deemed expedient by the management to confine the parade to the various patriotic, civic, educational and fraternal bodies and other organizations, and not attempt to include the general public.

This, however, does not exclude from the parade the private autos donated for the purpose of carrying the smaller school children.

Each organization or unit in the parade is urgently requested to provide for itself a banner suitably inscribed. This is important and each unit will be sure to take pride in selecting the banner under which it marches.

In the afternoon there will be a football game on the High School athletic field. The High School team expects the encouragement of every local fan, for this will be a great game. Their opponents are the Fullerton team, members of the League, and as neither our own team nor the Fullerton nine has lost a game this year, the contest is certain to be interesting.

With a program so complete, there is no reason for anyone's seeking elsewhere for a fitting celebration for Armistice Day, and surely civic pride, as well as the excellent program, will move all loyal residents of Glendale to participate in our own home celebration.

SHORT CUT TO LOS ANGELES

PAVING OF NEW "GLENDALE BOULEVARD" NEARING COMPLETION

BY WAY OF IVANHOE

ROAD IS TO HAVE CONCRETE BASE AND ASPHALTUM SURFACE

Two matters of great importance to Glendale residents are the early completion of Glendale boulevard, as it is already called by the Los Angeles city engineering department, and the other is the commencement of the Second street tunnel in Los Angeles this week. Both are closely connected as they are links in a short-cut between the business districts of Glendale and Los Angeles. The new boulevard leads from Brand boulevard south across the Los Angeles river by way of Ivanhoe bridge, through the hill by means of a deep cut recently made, past Silver Lake and Angelus Park to Ivanhoe avenue, then by way of Allessandro street, Glendale avenue, Lake Shore avenue and Second street through the new tunnel to the very heart of the business district of the big city. That portion of the new thoroughfare between the southern Glendale city limits and Ivanhoe avenue is now being paved. The larger part of the concrete road bed is now in and the asphaltum surface will be put on this week. The completion of this boulevard will open up quite an extensive residence section on both sides of the Los Angeles river.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

MRS. HAYWARD AND WORKERS READY FOR DRIVE TO BEGIN NOV. 11

$2000 TO BE THE GOAL

COMMITTEE THINKS THE SMALL AMOUNT ASKED SHOULD BE RAISED SOON

For the fourth time the Red Cross is planning its annual roll call. From November 11th to November 25th, the appeal for members is to be made and every person who pays one dollar for the great work of this organization is entitled to wear the little button with its tiny red cross which signifies enrollment.

Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward is in charge of the drive in Glendale and she is very hopeful of closing up the enrollment within a few days since the goal set for Glendale is only $2000, a very small amount to ask from a city of 20,000.

By tomorrow Mrs. Hayward expects to have her organization complete. The following is a partial list of her workers:

Acacia, Mrs. L. G. Scovern, Helen M. Hazard.

Arden, Mrs. F. S. Balthis.

Belmont, Mrs. Ed Lee, Miss Brockman, Mrs. A. V. Tarling and nieces.

North Brand, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Mrs. Jennie Phillips, Mrs. Frank Ayars, Mrs. E. K. Barnes.

South Brand, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, Mrs. Catherine Burnham, Mrs. E. O. Moulton.

Central Hotel, Mrs. Bledsoe.

Victor Hotel, Mrs. Stockbridge.

Boynton, Mrs. Amy Crist.

West Broadway, Mrs. J. A. McKelvey, Mrs. Ora McDermott, Mrs. J. S. Thompson, Mrs. A. H. Lapham, Mrs. Cate.

East Broadway, Mrs. W. H. Ward.

Burchett, Mrs. Earl C. Turner, Mrs. Frank England.

North Central, Mrs. Eugene Murman, Mrs. C. W. Dudley, Mrs. Roy Kent, Mrs. E. A. Lively.

Cherry, Mrs. John Esterly.

Chestnut, Mrs. D. R. Jackson.

Colorado, Mrs. Geo. G. Neil.

East California, Grace E. Holman, Sarah Tupper.

East Elk, Mrs. J. G. Peart.

DOCK FIRE AT PETALUMA; STEAMER BURNS

ONE MAN AND A MESS BOY ARE MISSING FOLLOWING A FIRE IN WHICH BIG DAMAGE IS DONE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PETALUMA, Nov. 8.—One man, a mess boy whose name has not been established, was missing today following a fire which destroyed the steamer Gold here, together with the wharf at which the vessel was lying, and did other damage totaling a quarter of a million dollars.

Fifteen persons, all members of the crew, were aboard when the fire broke out. Many reached safety by leaping overboard and swimming ashore.

Two terrific explosions, believed to have been fuel oil, spread the flames to the wharf and it was totally destroyed. The blaze was extinguished after a fight of almost five hours.

PREPARING FINAL MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

IT IS UNDERSTOOD MESSAGE WILL BE DEVOTED MOSTLY TO DOMESTIC MATTERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—President Wilson is preparing his final message to Congress. The message is to be delivered to the final session of the 66th Congress, which begins on December 6.

Wilson has been at work on it for some time and is understood to have discussed portions of it with various members of his cabinet, although he has not confided in any of them its exact contents.

The President has not told anyone whether he will mention the treaty. It is understood that it will be devoted mostly to domestic matters and will contain recommendations for tax revision and will repeat in effect previous recommendations for legislation to reduce the cost of living.

ARNSTEIN IS RELEASED BY SUPREME COURT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The Supreme Court today ordered the release of Jules "Mickey" Arnstein on a writ of habeas corpus. The Lower Court had refused the writ but their decision was reversed.

PROVE EFFECTIVE

SAFETY FIRST PLANS OF GLENDALE THEATRE TESTED BY STORM

'Tis an ill-wind that blows nobody good. The storm of Saturday evening plunged Glendale into total darkness and gave the Glendale Theatre its opportunity to demonstrate to the audience of 800 or more who were enjoying the play when the storm broke at a quarter past eight what an excellent subsidiary lighting system it has.

"Glendale Theatre was the only light spot in Glendale, and we were glad to stay right where we were," says a gentleman who was in the audience. "The theatre's own lighting plant proved itself. The house was comfortably lighted and there was no confusion at all. It was raining and chilly outside, so we all sat there and enjoyed the impromptu program quicly arranged for our entertainment."

F. Brooks Cole sang a program of thirteen solos during the evening, and Miss Viola Yorba, of Casa Verdugo, who was in the audience, volunteered her services and entertained with four delightful vocal numbers.

Manager Howe made several announcements during the evening, explaining the emergency lighting system and the absolute safety that it assures patrons of the theatre.

The audience was entertained until half-past ten.

Sunday Afternoon Fire

A dense column of smoke ascending high in the air Sunday afternoon gave notice to residents all over the city of a fire west of Central avenue and north of Colorado. Engines 1 and 3 from Fire Station No. 1 hurried to the scene, which was 355 Oak street, the home of Dr. Lura Marzen, who had just moved in the day before. She had turned on the tank heater, which proved to not have a sufficient vent and set fire to the attic, then to the roof. A quick run was made by the engines and well-directed streams of water soon extinguished the flames. The furniture was all gotten out and none was damaged. The roof of the house was a total wreck and water damaged the ceilings and walls considerably. The damage was estimated at about $700.

G. W. Brunner of 909 Orange Grove avenue, who is a watch repairer for W. E. Lawrence, a Burbank jeweler, but prefers living in Glendale, says business is fine where he works and that a new refracting room is being added to the equipment.

HENS DOING DOUBLE DUTY

W. H. VERITY FINDS FOUR EGGS WEIGHING FOUR OUNCES EACH

LENGTHENS THE DAY

ELECTRIC LIGHTS IN LAYING HOUSES SPUR THEM TO RENEWED ENERGY

W. H. Verity and wife of 511 West Broadway showed the Evening News this morning four eggs laid by young hens on their ranch which weighed four ounces each. They were all laid this morning, and all have double yolks. Mr. Verity said he hoped these four hens would not keep up this kind of work and that no more of them would contract the habit as he could get no more for these than regular-sized eggs, and they take from the hens' strength. Marketable eggs are supposed to weigh at least 22 ounces to the dozen, so these are more than twice as heavy as they need be to bring the highest price. Pullet eggs must weigh at least 18 ounces to the dozen. Mr. Verity says his hens are now laying about 33 1-8 per cent, which is very fine for this time of the year. He makes their working day 12 hours long by providing electric lights in all his laying houses, and says it pays in two ways. He gets more eggs because more of his hens lay and their condition is vastly improved, also.

Octogenarian Passes

S. S. Nonamaker, a resident of Glendale for the past three years, died at a quarter past eleven last night at his home, 1315 Walnut St.

Mr. Nonamaker was in his eighty-first year. He was engaged in the drug business in Chicago for twenty-five years. When he closed his business affairs there he and his wife moved to Cleveland, where a daughter resides. Later they came to Glendale to make their home here.

Mr. Nonamaker is survived by his wife, his daughter, Mrs. O. E. Von Oven, of 1012 Mariposa street, and another daughter, Mrs. W. A. Carran, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at half-past ten, in the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn cemetery, where interment will take place.

If Dream Comes True

The straw stack on the farm may prove the solution for the increasing shortage of gasoline. In Kansas, where strawstacks grow in greater profusion than elsewhere in this land, government chemists are conducting experiments in the destructive distillation of wheat straw into fuel suitable for heating, lighting and for driving internal combustion engines. The process hitherto used is too expensive to make the fuel commercially profitable, but it is hoped to cheapen it so that it may be produced as cheaply as the present price of gasoline. It has been demonstrated, according to reports given out, that one ton of straw will produce 40 gallons of fuel. On the basis of the estimate of this year's crop of straw there is enough in Kansas alone to produce 45,000,000 gallons, and the Sunflower State is but one in a galaxy of states that grow wheat in somewhat lesser quantities.

It is the dream of the chemists that the day will dawn when the Kansas farmer will have his own still to turn his straw, now valueless, into fuel to drive his sedan. The strawstack provided the fodder for the yoke of oxen, the motive power of an earlier day. In harmony with progress it is fitting that it should feed the modern method of locomotion.

There is enough in the world to complain about and find fault with, if you have the disposition. You often travel on a hard and uneven road, but with a cheerful spirit you may walk therein with great comfort and come to the end of your journey in peace.

MENTONE
THE HOMESEEKER'S GOAL
WHERE OUR RENT SAVERS ARE LOCATED

Why pay high rents when you can buy homes at Mentone, only two miles east of Redlands University at the following low prices, and easy terms?

One house of 8 rooms, garage and nearly one acre in oranges for $4200.

One house of 6 rooms with furnace in basement and four acres of land for $4500.

One house of 4 rooms and 3 lots for $1500.

One Duplex house within 4 blocks of the center of the city of Redlands, only $3500. Modern every way.

One house of 5 rooms, modern, 5 blocks out, $2500.

What difference to the winter tourist whether he lives in our large cities or lives at Mentone where he can have pure water, pure mountain air away from the fog, good schools and fine paved boulevards to ride over?

Mentone is where the Mentone Groves Co.'s wonderful frostless and pestless navel orange groves are located.

Where we sell 5, 10 or 20 acre tracts of land on the Bear Valley paved boulevard for $300 per acre, with water.

Only one-tenth of the purchase price to pay down and no further payment for ten years, except the interest at 6½ per cent.

The Mentone Groves Co. has employed two tractors preparing and planting land for Los Angeles business men on which to retire later.

Apply to W. P. McIntosh, with E. B. Goodrich Co., 337 South Hill St., Los Angeles, Calif.

WE HAVE GOOD HOMES for sale in all parts of the city. Always ready to show our patrons around.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Anne Mason Page is building a three-room residence at 408 Acacia avenue, to cost $1500.

Miss Mattie Whelan of Huntington Beach, a former resident of Glendale, was in the city over Sunday, visiting old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Jefferson of Catalina are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sonntag, of 119 South Glendale avenue, for several days.

Henry Von Pelt of 417 North Central avenue left recently on a business trip to Kansas and Iowa, where he has holdings of farm and oil lands.

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Gregg of 240 North Central avenue entertained as their week-end guest Lieut. Wm. Nelson of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jellison of 501 Milford street entertained Mr. and Mrs. Pittenger, of Inglewood, Sunday. Mrs. Pittenger is a sister of Mrs. Jellison.

J. A. Thayer and wife of 129 South Kenwood, arrived home one day last week from a four-months' visit with relatives in Watsonville and Paso Robles.

Mrs. L. N. Hagood of 216 North Orange street is entertaining her sister, Miss Cockerill, of San Francisco, who is also visiting friends in Alhambra.

The postmaster-general claims that he can find no authority for giving the postoffice employes a holiday on Armistice Day, and therefore they will have to work as usual.

Another of the new bungalows on Alexander street occupied in the past week is the one at 508. Mr. and Mrs. J. Brynelsen, formerly of 643 Howard street, moved into their new home there Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tripp of 139 South Pacific avenue and their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Proctor, motored to Redlands, Sunday. Mr. Tripp reports having seen snow on the roofs of houses in East Pasadena.

Mrs. Alice Jackson's duties as secretary of the Christian Missionary Society of Southern California are such that she is compelled for a time to move to Los Angeles and her new address is 1809 West 21st street.

Mrs. Mary Hill of Burr Oak, Indiana, is visiting her niece, Mrs. J. P. King, of 215 East Lomita avenue. She expects to remain here several weeks and will then visit relatives and friends in and around Los Angeles.

Some of the recent newcomers to Glendale are Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shaw and children, Laverne and Evan, who moved into their new home at 529 West Alexander street last week. Mr. Shaw was formerly in the drug business at Long Beach.

W. J. Stone of Paso Robles, who lived at 341 North Brand for several years, and is now part owner of a 565-acre almond and fruit ranch adjoining Paso Robles, is in Glendale for a few days, looking after some business matters.

Stereopticon views of scenes in Armenia were an interesting feature of Sunday evening's services at the Christian church. This was followed by an interesting and helpful sermon by the pastor. The choir singing was exceptionally good.

F. B. Nay, who is connected with the Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank, and is employed in the main bank in the city, is having a garage erected on the rear of the second lot on Central avenue, south of Myrtle, and will later build a fine home on the front.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hurd of 110 South Adams street have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Davis and little daughter, Mary Olive, who arrived in Glendale Saturday evening from Gary, Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are going to make Glendale their home providing they can find a suitable location.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Roach of 459 West Milford street had as their Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Marsh of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lapham and son of West Broadway, Glendale. A beautiful bouquet of dahlias in pastel shades formed a centerpiece on the dining table. Baskets of deep red dahlias decorated the music and living rooms.

P. W. Parker of North Louise has gone to Lancaster, where his wife is staying, to spend two weeks with her. Mr. Parker says his two-room brick business building at 117 West Broadway, now approaching completion, is already leased. The lot just west of it has been sold to H. M. Jamison, of Los Angeles, who will erect a business building on it, and Mr. Parker expects soon to start a building just north of the Nash garage.

One of the delightful dinner parties given during the past week was that at which Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boothby of 348 West Lexington Drive were host and hostess. Their beautifully-appointed home was decorated with bouquets of autumn flowers. The guests were Mrs. Ruth Bartow, of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. John Price, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hayes, of New York; and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bartow, of Glendale. After dinner the party met at the new Glendale Theatre, where a pleasant evening was enjoyed.

TWO ACCIDENTS

L. G. SCOVERN AMBULANCE KEPT BUSY SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

The L. G. Scovern ambulance was called out twice during the week-end to minister to people injured in serious accidents. About half past four Saturday afternoon, W. A. Wood, of 1638 Trinity street, Los Angeles, motorcycle officer for the city of San Fernando, in trying to overtake a speed maniac traveling at the rate of 60 miles an hour through the city, crashed into a truck just inside the city limits.

Mr. Wood's injuries are a broken leg and a basal skull fracture. The Scovern ambulance took him in to the Good Samaritan hospital, Los Angeles. His recovery is doubtful.

Mr. Wood crashed into the truck with such force as to take off a wheel.

Sunday John W. Kelly left Bakersfield in his machine, accompanied by his friend, Mr. Soderberg, and his chauffeur. About eight miles out, Mr. Kelly expressed a desire to drive and the chauffeur allowed him to take the wheel. Running along the Ridge route, Mr. Kelly lost control of the machine, became excited, and in trying to put on the brake, stepped on the gas. The car ran into a small hill and turned over several times. Mr. Kelly sustained two broken ribs and a broken arm and is probably injured internally. Mr Sodeberg was injured about the head, but not seriously, it is thought.

The chauffeur, who was sitting in the back seat, escaped with minor scratches.

Had the accident occurred twenty feet further along the road, or twenty feet back, the car would have plunged a thousand feet down the steep cliff.

The accident happened about half past twelve and the Scovern ambulance made record time in reaching the wounded, whom it carried in to the California hospital in Los Angeles.

Mr. Kelly is sheriff of Kern county. He is a mining man, interested in the Randsberg region. At present his family is living at 3903 South Main street, Los Angeles.

The handsome, expensive car, a new Dorris, was completely demolished.

Birthday Surprise

C. Claus Weber of 745 Gardena avenue was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening by seventeen friends who had planned a party in honor of his 82nd birthday. The house was beautifully decorated with roses, chrysanthemums and other autumn flowers. A delicious birthday dinner was served. During the evening games were played. Little Wm. Croft and Ruth Staedler gave several recitations. Mr. Weber was the recipient of many gifts.

William Tullett has made record time on his new residence started two weeks ago at 1010 East Harvard street. He is a carpenter and knows how to push things. The house, one of four rooms, is ready for the installation of the electric light meter.

Mrs. W. E. Evans invited the Glendale relatives of herself and Mrs. Alice Jackson, who had been staying there since her husband's death, in to tea last evening as a farewell to the latter, who is moving to Los Angeles for a time. The guests were Mattison B. Jones and wife and daughter Winifred; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pigg and son, Billy.

J. A. Sayers, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gamble of 1028 South Glendale avenue, left Sunday morning for his ranch at Calabasas. Fred Blodgett, well-known postman of Glendale, is making his home with the Gambles. He has just returned after spending the summer on his ranch at Ducor. Mrs. Blodgett is taking care of her mother, who is very ill at Long Beach.

R. J. Vaughan, driving one of the city's Fords west on Wilson avenue yesterday, collided at the Isabel street crossing with a Dodge driven by E. L. Schuyler of 330 Ivy street. Both machines were considerably damaged, but, contrary to the usual thing, the Ford suffered more than the other machine, for it was badly smashed up.

Jensen Makes Good

At the Palace Grand Theatre on Saturday evening the house was filled with an audience whom the lighting deprived of the pleasure they came to enjoy, by cutting off the supply of "juice" that runs the picture-machine.

People waited good-naturedly until ten o'clock, and Manager Jensen proved himself equally good-natured by announcing that tickets for another show would be given patrons who called at the box office as they passed out, to make up for the program of which the elements had deprived his patrons, by causing a break in the electric system.

Praises Glendale

G. Vernon Bennett and his son Elliott, of Los Angeles, were week-end visitors in the H. Bennett home, 404 North Jackson street.

G. Vernon Bennett is superintendent of the Federal Board of vocational education for ex-service men. In his work he visits most of the cities of Southern California and Nevada, and he says that Glendale is the cleanest city on his itinerary—which opinion proves him a gentleman of discriminating taste as well as keen powers of observation. He is a brother of H. Bennett.

K. of P. Dance

Although most of Glendale was in darkness Saturday evening, owing to the electrical storm putting the service wires out of commission, joy reigned supreme at the K. of P. hall, corner of Park avenue and Brand, where one of the popular Saturday night dances was in progress. Candles furnished light for the dancers. It is reported that despite the rain a large crowd was in attendance. Splendid music was furnished.

Seven Mistakes of Life

The delusion that individual advancement is made by crushing others down.

The tendency to worry about things that cannot be changed or corrected.

Insisting that a thing is impossible because we ourselves cannot accomplish it.

Attempting to compel other persons to believe and live as we do.

Neglect in developing and refining the mind by not acquiring the habit of reading fine literature.

Refusing to set aside trivial preferences in order that important things may be accomplished.

Failure to establish the habit of saving money.—Shelton Looms Bulletin.

SHOW STATE GROWTH

(By United Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—A total of $59,413,772.56 was expended by public utilities in California during the fiscal year ending June 30th for additions and betterments to their service according to figures submitted to Governor Stephens by the state railroad commission. The figure was $1,621,903.20 higher than in the previous year.

The railroad commission declares this is a "true index of the growth of California."

Among the largest investments in improvements to public utilities were:

Northwestern Pacific railroad, $1,008,000 for equipment.

San Diego and Eastern Railroad—$1,710,911 for completion of its line from San Diego to El Centro.

Great Western Power Company—$1,500,000 for construction of its new Feather river plant.

Los Angeles Gas & Electric Company—$10,000,000 for hydro-electric plants on the Pit river.

San Joaquin Valley Light & Power Corporation—Over $8,000,000 for new power units.

It is really disconcerting the way so many articles cling to the peak of high prices.

Lexington Drive, Mrs. J. S. Hayward, Mrs. John R. White.

Louise, Mrs. E. Payson Hayward.

Maryland, Mrs. Yard, Mrs. Bert Woodard.

Oak, Mrs. U. Grant Stewart.

Orange, Mrs. Roy C. Flint.

Palmer, Mrs. T. B. Curtis, Mrs. E. L. Early.

Park, Mrs. Hartley Shaw.

Pioneer Drive, Mrs. Eugene C. Smith.

Salem, Mrs. Geo. Hastings.

Riverside Drive, Mrs. A. S. Chase.

South Verdugo Road, Mrs. J. L. Denny.

Dr. Livingston Farrand, chairman of the Central committee, sends the following message, which explains the needs of this roll call:

The Red Cross comes to its fourth roll call with its war task still unfinished and its peace program rapidly developing. Never were the world and national needs so pressing and the corresponding opportunities of service so great.

It is only too evident that the world has not been able even to approach re-establishment after the war. Widespread distress and sickness stare us in the face in Europe and the Red Cross is carrying on, to the extent of its resources, in an attempt to answer the call for help. How permanent and far-reaching that answer shall be depends upon the mind and conscience of the American people. The American Red Cross has about reached the limit of its resources remaining from the days of the war.

It has acquired an incalculable asset in the fact that during the months of the past it has "learned how." To what extent the American people may contribute in answer to the call from overseas, to that extent the American Red Cross will render fully and freely of its service.

At home the wounded and sick soldiers and sailors in hospitals and elsewhere are still numbered by the thousands. The Red Cross cannot demobilize its forces organized to stand beside those who gave their best for their country and extend what aid and comfort may be possible. The task of helping the government departments make possible the return of soldiers and sailors to civil life still calls for Red Cross support in all communities throughout the land.

An attempt to build up the health of the country which is the outstanding feature of the peace program of the Red Cross, is taxing the energies of the organization.

Demands for visiting nurses come in from every corner of the United States and every effort is being made to supply that need, the filling of which is vital. To this end the Department of Nursing is attempting, in connection with various nurses' associations, to conduct a national campaign to recruit student nurses for the training schools of the country. So vital is the necessity that the American Red Cross feels it can perform no greater service to the world at large than by active participation in this movement.

The organization of health centers is opening up a new conception of community welfare everywhere. The new public health, based upon the common sense philosophy of not merely curing the sick, but of keeping people well, is opening illimitable lines of possibility. Classes in home care of the sick, in dietetics and in first aid are only limited in number by the supply of the skilled personnel necessary to conduct them.

The Junior Red Cross is developing in the school children of the country, ideals and habits of sound citizenship which mean more, perhaps, than anything else for the future safety of our American democracy.

Home Service is still a necessary function of the Red Cross, for there are thousands of families of soldiers and sailors which are still in need of friendly counsel and relief.

Along its historic line of activity and usefulness the Red Cross is organizing and standardizing its capacity for disaster relief so that instead of waiting for the calamity to transpire and then organize methods and forces, there shall be in constant readiness a trained organization ready upon a moment's call to carry its work of mercy anywhere.

So throughout the entire land the Red Cross is striving to salvage the spirit of co-operation aroused by the war, and to turn it to the public good. To this end we need the service and co-operation of every man, woman and child in the country.

To obtain that service in the widest possible response is the object of the fourth roll call.

THE WAY TO WIN

Don't spend your time thinking how much you can get out of your employer's business. It won't pay him nor will it pay you. Spend your time and effort to see how much you can put into the business. This will pay you both.

Your employer, no matter how selfish you may think him to be, will quickly take your measure. The more selfish he is, the more he will want to keep the worker who works for him, as well as for himself. He will hold on to the man or woman in his employ who is increasing his business and his profits.

The efficient employee will be the last to go when hard times come. The efficient employee will be the first to be chosen by other employers in the same line of business in search of good men.

Every successful, self-made man or woman has attained success through honesty, industry and efficiency. This is the way by which Carnegie rose from telegraph operator to the head of the largest steel corporation in the world.

This is the way by which Schwab rose from a water carrier to the presidency of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, and John D. Rockefeller from clerk in a country store to the head of one of the greatest oil industries in the world and had his methods of efficiency copied by all his successful competitors.

Every successful banker and business man in the self made class, whose life stories we read with such absorbing interest, won success not by opposing but by helping his employer; not by watching the clock, not by seeking as many leisure hours as possible, but by unceasing vigilance to the end that his employer might win and that he might be a winner with him.

Let the reader who is familiar with the interesting stories of our business men name one who carried out this plan and failed.

Build for your employer. In doing so, remember you are always building for yourself.—Leslies' Weekly.

PUBLIC LIBRARY

When the library outgrew its first home, it was moved to a location on Glendale avenue, where it continued its healthy growth to such an extent that it was necessary to build an addition to be used as a reading room.

On November the 13th, 1913, the library moved to its present handsome, commodious home on Harvard street. Here its sphere of usefulness was much increased, naturally, by ample room, better arrangement, and harmonious environment more conducive to reading and study.

Glendale has always been fortunate in the selection of the members of the library board. They have ever been in sympathy with the plan of widening the sphere of the library and extending its benefits, and they have also been generous in the matter of purchasing books and equipment.

Mrs. Danford's slogan is "service," and her motto "a library for the people;" that is, to her the extension of the benefits of the library, the widening of its sphere, are matters to which the problems of library administration are secondary.

The wide range of subjects referred to the library for research prove that the people of Glendale understand and appreciate Mrs. Danford's policy.

The informal book reviews at half past two every Thursday afternoon and the children's study hour at three o'clock on Saturday are interesting features of the library's enlarged program.

Glendale now has a library of 10,000 volumes. Its librarian and her assistants serve their city and their fellow-citizens in very important ways. They give willing and intelligent aid in research work in any line of human endeavor touched upon in the books and magazines of the library; their co-operation with the schools and the various clubs of the city is important.

Last, but not least, the librarian is hostess to the strangers within our gates, for the library is the only place in the city where some of them, lonely, transplanted from a familiar environment to a strange one, feel at home.

This story of our library was inspired by the fact that Thursday was the thirteenth anniversary of Mrs. Danford's reign as city librarian of Glendale. Service so efficient and so constant deserves recognition, and Glendale is to be congratulated on its capable, kindly librarian and the friendly, home-like atmosphere which she radiates.

The tarantula is said to have derived its name from the town, Taranto, in Italy, where this species of spider is said to be especially common.

The graceful dance of Southern Italy called the tarantella is the only relic of the tarantism which in early days was supposed to have been produced by the bite of the tarantula.

This was a dancing mania, nothing more or less, and the world eventually learned that its real cause was to be found in the epidemic then sweeping the country of an exaggerated hysterical condition and not from madness and depression distributed into the system by the tarantula's poison.—Boy's Life for October.

TRIBUTE TO SOLDIER

PRIVATE IN SERVICE IN PHILIPPINES SAYS HE HAS MANY PLEASURES THERE

Private Ray Franklin of C. A. C., Fort Mills, Philippine Islands, is one of Uncle Sam's soldiers who is not tired of the service. He mails a rhyme to the Evening News and asks that we publish it. He says "The Islands are a real good place to soldier and we can have many different pleasures here." The title of his story is "An Old Soldier's Views."

Corporal, what are your ribbons for?
Tell me what each of 'em means.
One I got in the Spanish war
And one in the Philippines.
One I got in the Boxer brush,
For making the Chinks be good;
And one for helping to block the Boche
In bloody old Belleau Wood.
Corporal, if I should join your Corps,
Oh, what would it do for me?
You'd learn to range this wide world o'er,
By sky and earth and sea.
To be at home in the lands that lie
Where the east and west worlds meet,
To front the best man eye to eye
And stand on your own two feet.
Oh, Corp, tell me straight, what kind
Of a man the army makes—
The sort of a chap you're glad to find
On your side when a rough house breaks.
The sort of a chap who can crack a joke,
And laugh when the sky looks black;
The kind who'll share his last smoke
Or give you the shirt off his back.

Jewish Workers

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 6.—Establishment of big farm colonies by Jews in California to overcome the national food shortage and to eventually supplant Japanese cheap labor there is being urged by prominent Jewish and educational leaders here.

Rabbi Dr. Joseph Krauskoph, in outlining his plan for colonization of Jews to till land on an extensive scale in the west, contrasted farm production in California and Pennsylvania, pointing to the fact that while forty bushels of corn per acre is realized on Pennsylvania soil, California yields twice as much, or eighty bushels corn per acre.

It is proposed that all graduates of the National Farm School here, of which Dr. Krauskoph is president, be sent to untenanted places in California and other fertile acreages in the west, largely as an experiment. By working collectively and in large numbers, as proposed by the plan, the trained workers would speed up production as cheaply as if Japanese labor were employed and with better results, Dr. Krauskoph said.

Little Savings

The little savings of little folks grow large as life enlarges. A dime in time saves nine if it is put safely away in this strong bank.

Teach the children to save by opening a Time account for them and helping them to make regular deposits. The habit will soon grow and will mean everything to them in later life. Small deposits of small depositors are as welcome here as larger amounts from grown-up people.

And the little folks will appreciate the fact that their money is earning interest for them, too.
